Moving Along...

As we remember the
time that has passed,
let us begin to celebrate the future!

If you have built castles in the air . . .
that is where they should be.
Now put the foundations under them."

Thoreau

You are richer today than you were yesterday if you have laughed often, given something, forgiven even more, made a new friend, made stepping stones out of stumbling blocks, if you have thought more in terms of "thyself" than "myself" or if you have managed to be cheerful even if you were weary.

The yearbook staff would like to dedicate the 1980-81 FUTURA to two of the "richest" people we know, Bonnie Wheeler and Helen Challand. You have done so many of these things so often that you have made our lives very rich by being a part of them.

Enthusiasm?

"So she said . . ., then he said . . .!"

"Why am I here?"

You'd think we were being drafted.

Undivided attention.

"Now what could we make them do?"

"I don't believe I'm doing this!"

Such coordination!

HITMAN HEYDAY!

(Sung to the tune of "Beverly Hillbillies")

Let me tell you a story about a Prof named Doc,
A poor scientist she was really hard to shock.
And then one day she was teaching 'bout the Krebs,
And bustin' through the door came a bunch of young rebs.
Seniors, that is; wild and crazy; Class of '81.
The first thing you know a hostage she was made,
People quickly learned that a ransom must be paid.
Then within the hour her saviors had come through,
Yes Doc! You see, we really do love you!

"I made it!"

The Road goes ever on and on
Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the Road has gone,
And I must follow, if I can,
Pursuing it with eager feet,
Until it joins some larger way
Where many paths and errands meet
And whither then? I cannot say

Normal Day, let me be aware of the treasure you are. Let me learn from you, love you, savor you, bless you, before you depart.

Let me not pass you by in quest of some rare and perfect tomorrow. Let me hold you while I may, for it will not always be so.

One day I shall dig my finger into the earth, or bury my face in the pillow, or stretch myself taut, or raise my hands to the sky, and want more than all the world: your return

Eager, Enthusiastic ~ ~ ~ naive.
They enter these doors for the first time ~ ~ ~
They've walked out of others ~
Others that will never open quite the same way again.
Here they'll look for answers,
But will be confronted with questions.
They'll examine 'theory' and its 'practice' ~ ~ ~
~ ~ ~ not to mention themselves.
They'll learn to love and to give ~
To be watchful and to be wary.
They'll learn to smile ~
And to know what it is to cry.
Ears and eyes will develop.
They'll open up, and yet narrow in.
Emotions ~ confronted with facts,
become a way of life.
Yes, and they'll grow.
And they'll stand up to it all.

Last Will

And Testaments

Being of Semi-crazed mind and body,
(It's more fun that way!), I hereby bequeath the following:

To next year's group of R.A.'s:

A bronzed visitation book, an ear full of cotton
for unwanted buzzing, and loads of success.

To future Student Teachers:

A large cup full of tea every AM and an extra
6 hours of sleep.

To future "Methods" students:

Fred Wilkin's version of "boyancy",

To the lifeguards : a nickle for every dried cap!

To Baker Hall:

All my philosophical posters to get you through
"The best years of your life!", and an original tape recording of my endless hours at the piano.

To Food Service: "Two apples please."

To all enthusiastic joggers:

Sunrises along the scenic routes by Gilson and the Observatory at N.U.--- Yes! Even in the winter!

To all my good friends at N.C.E.:

A huge THANKS! for all of those wild and crazy times,
and for being there when you were needed!

Lynn Cahoon

I, Laurie Noreen, Leave to my 2-South buddies all my un-burned midnight oil, my ice trays and an anthology of lingerie stores. I also leave to everyone my address (which I forgot to submit to the directory)

I'll leave my qualitative analysis lab for posterity to Art.

— Jane O'Brien

I, Robbie Robinson, bequeath to the faculty, staff, and students of NCE all empty pepper shakers.

I, Anne Flynn, being of somewhat sound mind and body, hereby leave my student teaching journal to the National College of Education Hall of Records. In addition, I leave lots of love to Sally, Mary, Penny, Donna, and all my friends remaining at Baker.

For those who plan to be teachers, I leave a pair of comfortable shoes, and a bag full of energy.

—Julie Obuchowski

I will to B., K., and P. fur and success in the next two years.

—Trudy L. Ploch

I leave for all of you out there tons of lesson plans, oodles of anecdotes, and gobs of journal pages. Enjoy!

—Judy Rodriguez

I, Carrie Sandstrom, being of sound mind and body, leave Diana all my extra dittos, scraps, catalogs, and anything else I might throw away.

—Carrie Lynn Sandstrom

I do hereby bequeath to 1-South my picture of Lucy screaming, "I've Had It!", to the 1981-82 R. A.'s my rainbow, to Lyn Crabbe all the sour gumball in my gumball machine, and to J.B., B.W., L.N., E.H., D.J., M.T.D., M.L.H., and P.F. lots of Vitamin H.

—Camille Kowalczyk

To those left behind, I leave all but my diploma.

— Ruth Braunshausen

To NCE I will my belief in small ideas that make big impressions.

— Ann Kathryn Fox

I leave NCE taking many memories with me, and give it this thought: "A friend is everything."

— Judy Back Gerwe

I leave red marking pen to Bonnie Proesel.

— Pam Manders

I, Diana Moore, leave to Mark Swierczewski, my love of learning and zest for life. To the undergraduates, I leave my fight against this school's red tape!

— Diana Moore

I do hereby bequeath the following:

To Mary Lindquist: a clean attic

To Lyn Crabbe: Plane ticket to Dallas to deliver the yearbook.

To Frances: a supply of flowers for her desk.

To Paul Murphy: an A for effort in all tasks undertaken.

To B.W. and C.B.: an unexpected hug.

To C.K. and M.L.H.: My friendship forever, a never-ending supply of popcorn, and a bottle of wine.

I would like to thank the yearbook staff and advisors for their help in getting the 1981 FUTURA finished on time. A special thanks to Kathy and Camille. I would especially like to thank Paul Murphy for his many trips to ROOT and his support. Also, thank you to the Alumni for their financial support. I hope that this book will bring back many happy memories. While this book is, in a way, our gift to you it is also your gift to us. Because without you this book would be only blank pages. Now that FUTURA is caught up and on time and is financially stable, I hope that it does not die due to lack of student support.
